

Around the Services

Compiled by SGT Alberto Betancourt
from service reports

Marine Corps

To immediately boost its personnel strength following the Sept. 11 attacks, the Marine Corps created a database form for Reservists and retired marines who are available for mobilization with the active-duty Marine forces.

Master Sgt. Mark Savage

Navy

Defense officials said the USS Kitty Hawk left a portion of its 75-plane air wing at Atsugi Air Base in Japan and headed for the Arabian Sea Oct. 1. U.S. newspapers report that the aircraft carrier will serve as a forward operating base, or "lily pad," for special-operations units operating in the region.

Air Force

The Utah Air National Guard's 151st Security Forces Squadron was one of many units called up to support homeland defense operations. The squadron was activated to augment security personnel at Salt Lake City International Airport.

PH Lee M. Caskill

Coast Guard

Members of Coast Guard port security units, mostly Reservists, were deployed to New York to patrol the waters around Manhattan after the Sept. 11 World Trade Center attack.

PAC Brandon Brewer